"The End of COVID": In this documentary, filmmakers question the validity of the germ theory and the existence of viruses that spread from one person to another to cause infections and disease. They argue that these theories are based on quackery and pseudoscience, making the vaccines ineffective and unnecessary. The documentary is set to stream on Brighteon University (www.BrightU.com) starting February 10th.

Roger Waters: Pink Floyd co-founder Roger Waters has been dropped by German music company BMG for speaking out against Israel's genocide of Palestinians. Despite being called an anti-Semite and a supporter of Putin, Waters continues to advocate for peace in the Middle East.

Christian Veteran Charged with Hate Crime: Michael Cassidy has been charged with a hate crime for beheading a statue of Satan at the Iowa Capitol. This incident highlights the absurdity of the concept of hate crimes, where people can be punished based on their thoughts and intentions rather than their actions.

Harvard's Chief Diversity Officer Plagiarizes: Harvard's chief diversity and inclusion officer has been accused of plagiarism in her academic work. This case demonstrates the collapse of academia due to DEI policies that prioritize race and sexual orientation over merit and talent.

Republican Senators Make Mark Zuckerberg Look Good: During a hearing with big tech CEOs, Republican senators focused on alleged anti-Israel bias and sex trafficking conversations instead of addressing the issue of censorship of right-wing views. This further illustrates the tribal nature of politics, where people prioritize their team's interests over principles and morality.

US Troops to Start Dying for Israel: US air force personnel in Iraq have been told to remain on standby in case of US involvement in the Israel-Hamas war. This raises concerns about the potential for increased casualties among American soldiers who are being sent into a conflict they do not belong in.

Military Draft Coming to the United States: As the US regime prepares to sacrifice millions of Americans for war, it is expected that a military draft will be implemented. This move shows the disregard for public opinion and the willingness to prioritize the interests of globalist elites over those of the American people.

Conclusion: The news report covers various issues affecting society, including the validity of scientific theories, political tribalism, and the abuse of power by institutions like academia and government. It emphasizes the importance of questioning mainstream narratives and advocates for individual self-reliance and empowerment through alternative sources of information and tools such as language models and backup communication devices.
